Application Guidelines of Yuan Ze University Student Scholarship for Donations from Different Sectors

April 14, 2023 Approved by the 2nd Scholarship Review Committee of the 2022 Academic Year

October 31, 2025 Amended and Approved by the 1st Scholarship Review Committee of the 2025 Academic Year

October 27 2026 Amended and Approved by the 1st Scholarship Review Committee of the 2026 Academic Year

1. These Regulations are established to help students facing financial hardship, sudden changes in family circumstances, or other needs for financial assistance to continue their studies without disruption; to encourage financially disadvantaged students with outstanding academic performance to focus on their studies; and to ensure the effective management and coordination of student scholarships and grants donated by various parties without specific restrictions on their use.

2. If the scholarships donated by Different Sectors have specified purposes, they will be handled according to the mentioned purpose. It cannot be changed the purposes without the written consent of the donors. The non-specified purposes scholarships will be managed and utilized in accordance with these guidelines.

3. All currently enrolled undergraduate and master's students of the University who hold Republic of China (Taiwan) nationality, excluding students enrolled in in-service master's programs, and who meet the following criteria are eligible to apply. Priority shall be given to students who did not receive any other scholarships or grants from the University or external sources during the preceding semester.

   (1) Scholarship and Grant for Low-Income Students:
      a. Students who are in straitened circumstances or need an Emergency Assistance.
      b. Students achieved an average academic score of 75 or above with no fail subjects, and conduct score of 85 without disciplinary actions in the previous semester.

   (2) Scholarship and Grant for Outstanding Low-Income Students:
      a. Students who are in straitened circumstances or need an Emergency Assistance.
      b. Students achieved an average academic score of 90 or above with no fail subjects, and conduct score of 85 without disciplinary actions in the previous semester.

4. The Low-Income Student Grant is generally awarded at NT$5,000 to NT$10,000 per student per semester. The Outstanding Low-Income Student Scholarship is generally awarded at NT$10,000 to NT$20,000 per student. The quotas and amount of scholarships are determined by the amount of donations received in the current year.

5. After new semester started, relevant information regarding the scholarships application will be announced by the Office of Student Affairs (OSA). Applicants should complete the online questionnaire and submit the following documents:

(1) Application form.
(2) Academic transcripts for all previous semesters, including conduct grades. Newly admitted students may submit their academic transcript for the most recent semester prior to admission.
(3) Relevant supporting documents demonstrating financial hardship, such as proof of low-income or middle-low-income household status, membership in a family in special circumstances, financial hardship, sudden changes in family circumstances, or other documentation sufficient to substantiate the family's financial difficulties.
(4) Certificates of diverse achievements and other relevant supporting documents.

6. The OSA will prepare a list of students applying for this scholarship in accordance with the aforementioned guidelines. It will be announced after review by the Scholarship Review Committee (SRC).

7. Matters not covered in these guidelines shall be handled in accordance with the "YZU Measures for the Management of Educational Resources Development Fund."

8. These guidelines shall be implemented upon approval by the SRC Meeting, Any amendments shall be processed accordingly

In case of any discrepancy between the Chinese and English versions, the Chinese version shall prevail.