

Guidelines for the Establishment of the Indigenous Student Resource Center at Yuan Ze University

October 26, 2022, Approved at the 7th Executive Council Meeting of the 111th Academic Year
March 13, 2024, Amended and passed in the 14th Executive Council Meeting of the 112th Academic Year
July 10, 2024, Amended and passed in the 22nd Executive Council Meeting of the 112th Academic Year
September 2, 2026, Amended and passed in the 3rd Executive Council Meeting of the 115th Academic Year

Article 1: To promote the multicultural characteristics of the campus, integrate internal and external resources, strengthen support services for Indigenous students, and enhance their learning outcomes, Yuan Ze University (hereinafter referred to as “the University”) establishes the Indigenous Student Resource Center (hereinafter referred to as “the Center”) under the Office of Student Affairs in accordance with the Indigenous Peoples Education Act and Article 7 of the University's Organizational Regulations.

Article 2: The duties of the Center are as follows:

1. To coordinate and integrate Indigenous student affairs and resources across the University.
2. To monitor and support the academic performance of Indigenous students.
3. To provide care and assistance regarding Indigenous students' adaptation to university life.
4. To promote Indigenous cultures and cultivate a culturally diverse campus environment.

Article 3: The Center shall be headed by a Director, The Dean of Student Affairs shall concurrently serve as Director, who shall oversee all affairs of the Center. Several staff members may be assigned from existing University personnel or employed on a contractual basis to assist in implementing the Center's programs and activities.

Article 4: The Center shall establish an Advisory Committee (hereinafter referred to as “the Committee”) to provide consultation and recommendations regarding its operations and development. The Committee shall meet at least once each semester and may convene special meetings when necessary. The Committee shall consist of three to five members appointed by the President upon recommendation of the Center each academic year. Members shall serve a one-year term and may be reappointed upon expiration of their terms. The Committee shall be composed as follows:

1. Ex-officio member: The Director of the Center.
2. Appointed members: External professionals, representatives of Indigenous students, or University faculty and staff with who are Indigenous.
3. Indigenous members shall constitute no less than one-third of the total membership of Committee.

Article 5: These Guidelines shall be promulgated and implemented upon approval by the Executive Council Meeting.

In case of any discrepancy between the Chinese and English versions, the Chinese version shall prevail.